DESSATA ULTRA VIOLET DETANGLING BRUSH

As individuals around the world become more fascinated with colour and its ability to convey deep messages and meanings, Dessata incorporated an ultra-violet hue in their successful detangling range in order to inspire customers to pursue mindful practices, find refuge in an over-stimulated world, and achieve hair nirvana from unwanted knots and tangles. Developed to protect the integrity of the hair shaft and celebrate the latest in ergonomic technology, Dessata is the very brand to allow triple length bristles to detangle hair with ease, efficiency and minimal effort. Sporting a unique shape that moulds to the contours of the hand and enhances the user's natural anti-strength, the brush is manufactured from a patented gel that does not create down-side time, ideal for daily use and on the go, hair is left shiny, glossy and soft as the touch. Available in Wet, Original and Blow sizes, from $29.95.

YOOH: YOO BUY, YOOH GIVES

With 1.2 million Aussie kids living in financially disadvantaged families, a number of children won't be able to afford even the most basic school supplies needed to participate effectively in school. In an effort to stamp out the problem, innovative stationery brand, Yooh, has produced another vibrant range of socially-conscious stationery supplies, which is available from Woolworths stores across the country. The Yooh premise is simple. You buy, Yooh gives. Yep, for every Yooh item purchased, another Yooh item is donated to a child in need. Since the brand's launch in Australia two years ago, Yooh has given away more than half a million stationery products to over 45,000 Australian kids in need. This year, Yooh has partnered with World Vision, the Sydney Story Factory and other charitable organisations, to continue its mission of ensuring that every child has the school supplies they need. Available in Woolworths now, Yooh's fast good collection boasts a vibrant range of notebooks, pens, highlighters, mini sequin kits, erasers and book bookmarks. www.yooh.com.au
